DETAILED ACTION

The rejection under section 112, first paragraph is withdrawn since the specification teaches preparation of levalbuterol L-tartrate in crystalline form.

The rejection under section 103 is withdrawn since the references does not particularly suggest the L-tartrate salts of levalbuterol. In this regard, common salts of pharmaceutical products would have been within the motivation and skill of those of ordinary skill, and thus prima facie obvious. In this connection, the examiner mentions the art of record and Berge et al., Journal of Pharmaceuticals 66(1) (1977), which demonstrates the common salts: hydrochloride, sulfate and tartrate (see table I on page 2). However, the Declaration under Rule 1.132 shows that tartrate salts, as opposed to the sulfates, and hydrochloride salts (shown in the specification), could not be formed into micronized pellets, suitable for administration with a metered does inhaler. However, the L-tartrate salts of levalbuterol could unexpectedly be micronized, and be suitable administered via a metered-does inhaler. Therefore, the showing under Rule 1.132 shows unexpected results of the L-tartrate salts, and thus, overcomes the prima facie case.

An updated search of the prior art failed to uncover a reference that teaches levalbuterol L-tartrate. The search also failed to uncover a reference that would have motivated those of ordinary skill to modify a know compound to provide the levalbuterol L-tartrate of the instant claims. In this regard, CN 1382685 teaches the tartrate salt of levalbuterol, see attached CAS online citation [retrieved March 16, 2007] from STN,

Art Unit: 1621

Columbus, OH, USA. However, the Declaration under Rule 1.131 dated 7/3/2006 shows a reduction of practice in March 2002, which antedates this reference.

Claims 15, 16 and 18-29 are rejoined under MPEP 821.04(a). In this regard, the following objections and rejections are now entered:

Claim Objections

Claims 26 and 26 objected to because of the following informalities: the term "whenever" should be removed. Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claim 21-23 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claims 21 recites preparation of levalbuterol L-tartrate by hydrogenation of R-benzylalbuterol. However, it is unclear how the L-tartrate salt is prepared in this manner. Moreover, claim 21 depends on claim 18, and in this manner it is unclear how hydrogenation integrates with the mixing of levalbuterol with tartaric acid.
